

Your local deaf led organisation for deaf and hard of hearing people

Deaf Awareness Day at Oxford Deaf & Hard of Hearing Centre

On Thursday 10th May 2012

I don't ignore you, I am Deaf!

We Need to Work Together

You are invited to join us - There will be talks, exhibitions, workshops, and free lunch.

It will be a great opportunity for networking and meeting new and old people. The topic will be "We Need to Work Together" as a part of Deaf Awareness Week.

- Deaf-related professionals
- Disabled-related professionals
- Deaf, Hard of Hearing and Hearing people
- Students
- Families, parents and friends are also welcome

BSL Interpreters, Speech-to-Text and Loop will be available

Draft Programme

10am	Registration
10:30-11:30	Introduction to Deaf Direct... and what we do?
10.30-10.45	Tea Break
11:45-12:45	How can we work together? (We will split into workshops)
12.45-1.15	Conclusion to the morning
1.15-2:00	Networking Lunch – We provide food. Everyone is welcome to stay for the networking lunch.
2:00-4:00	"Deaf & Hearing Awareness" workshop – a new kind!

For more information or to book a place (& exhibition), please contact
Alexy Dury – Centre Coordinator
Oxford Deaf & Hard of Hearing Centre, St Ebbes, Oxford OX1 1RL
alexandrad@deafdirect.org.uk
Tel: 01865 243 447 - Text: 01865 722 209